our solutions

People can be the difference between business success and business failure. When you are faced with that pressure, you want to know you are working with a recruitment partner that you can trust and whose opinions you value. You want a recruitment partner who you know can find you the exact talent to match your requirements.

We believe Reed Banking & Finance is that partner. Our consultants have an in-depth knowledge of the relevant experience and qualifications required of candidates in their respective markets.

our services

Recruitment is all about people; what and who they know. Our consultants have spent many years recruiting or working directly within their specialist industry or sector. Consequently, they have built an unrivalled network of contacts that enables them to respond quickly and accurately to your recruitment needs. We know recruitment is a close-knit industry and today's candidate is tomorrow's client, so we treat everyone with the same professionalism and respect. It is this approach that results in many of our candidates coming through referrals.

Our job is to make the recruitment process as efficient, accurate and painless as possible. Reed Banking & Finance offers:

- Permanent and contract Banking and Financial services recruitment
- Specialist knowledge of skill sets and industry sectors
- Professional, experienced consultants with specialist vertical market knowledge
- Unrivalled access to a network of candidates worldwide
- An unmatched commitment to getting the job done professionally, integrally and honestly
